Trust God

The scripture says “trust in the Lord with all thy heart and lean not to your own understanding.”

It also says, “I know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.” We all know these verses and can easily repeat and reflect on them. However, do we really believe them.

So many times we don't really act as though we really believe what these verses are saying. We worry or become overly concerned when things don't seem to go the way we want them to go. We make plans and fret when they don't go our way not recognizing that God also has a plan. Because we trust God, we should always seek to do two things. First, we must try to make sure that our plans are in line with God's plan. Second, we must recognize that God's timing is not out timing. We must realize that God is sovereign and that He is faithful and is always working on our behalf.

We are called to be faithful as we continue to trust Him in all He does in our lives. We trust God as we seek to be all that God has called us to be as individuals and as a church family. God is always calling us forward to be who He will have us to be. As He leads us, we are called to pray, to listen, to trust and to follow.

As we move forward into our 50th year, May we faithfully trust God and follow His lead.

Come Unto Me

By Charles Price Jones

1. Hear the blessed Savior calling the oppressed,
“O ye heavy-laden, come to Me and rest;
Come, no longer tarry, I your load will bear,
Bring Me every burden, bring Me ev'ry care.

Refrain:

*Come unto Me; I will give you rest;
Take My yoke upon you, hear Me and be blest;
I am meek and lowly, come and trust My might;
Come, My yoke is easy, and My burden's light.*

2. Are you disappointed, wand'ring here and there,
Dragging chains of doubt and loaded down with care?
Do unholy feelings struggle in your breast?
Bring your case to Jesus, He will give you rest.

3. Stumbling on the mountains dark with sin and shame,
Stumbling toward the pit of hell's consuming flame;
By the pow'rs of sin deluded and oppressed,
Hear the tender Shepherd, “Come to Me and rest.”

4. Have you by temptation often conquered been,
Has a sense of weakness brought distress within?
Christ will sanctify you, if you'll claim His best,
In the Holy Spirit He will give you rest.
